

Leadership Vistas

The Buena Vista Program

Business Women Rising is pleased to announce a new kind of management and leadership development program specifically designed for executives and senior leaders who want to build a more solid foundation for management effectiveness. The Buena Vista Program is a confidential and collaborative educational forum where 12 to 15 executives convene to invest in their personal leadership portfolios and take their management skills to a higher level.

Leadership Vistas offer you more!

- Practical management and leadership education facilitated by an experienced business trainer and executive coach
- Ongoing networking and peer-to-peer mentoring from other talented executives dedicated to accelerating professional development
- Opportunities to upgrade leadership capabilities by committing to new actions based on the education and mentoring you receive

The Buena Vista program will enable you to:

- Expand your knowledge and ability to apply a wealth of best practices shared by other business experts
- Generate innovative solutions to a variety of business challenges
- Build powerful relationships with a trusted network of senior leaders from other organizations
- Establish and attain strategic objectives by working more effectively through others
- Increase your capacity to maximize team and organizational performance

Valuable discussion topics include:

- Building a foundation of trust
- Delegating, not micromanaging
- Inspiring and engaging others
- Managing conflict as a strategic asset
- Flexing your style for more impactful communication

One-year membership includes ten half-day Sessions

- Meet once a month
- Locations determined by participants

Register Now!

Founders groups are forming now in LA, Orange County
And San Diego

Space is Limited

Additional information about Leadership Vistas is available at:

www.BusinessWomenRising.com

949-698-7662