

Leadership Vistas

The Stella Vista Program

Business Women Rising is pleased to announce a new kind of leadership development program, specifically designed for emerging leaders and high achieving professionals who work with and influence senior level executives. The Stella Vista Program is a confidential, collaborative forum where 16 to 18 professionals gain insights into the world of senior leadership, learn how to communicate more effectively with executives, and take their influencing skills to the next level.

Leadership Vistas offer you more!

- Exclusive leadership education incorporating perspectives provided by senior business leaders, facilitated by an experienced executive coach
- Ongoing networking with and mentoring from other high achieving professionals on current business challenges
- Opportunities to develop more impactful leadership, communication and influencing skills

The Stella Vista program will enable you to:

- Increase your understanding of the issues that senior leaders face
- Expand your knowledge and ability to apply a wealth of information delivered by business experts
- Build powerful, meaningful relationships with a trusted network of high achieving professionals from other corporations
- Learn to think more strategically to increase your effectiveness and accelerate your success

Valuable discussion topics include:

- What it takes to make great ideas happen
- Navigating corporate politics
- How to lead a matrix-managed organization
- Packaging your message to the CEO
- Engaging diverse and global teams

One-year membership includes:

Ten Half-day Sessions

- Meet once a month
- Locations determined by participants

Two Regional Events

- The Winter Vista Exchange connects members across local chapters to foster greater networking, mentoring and access to role models in an expanded meeting format.
- The Summer Vista Exchange is an energetic event that brings together leaders at all levels in a not-to-be-missed networking forum with inspiring keynote speakers, discussions with top executives and more!
